Freeland Has Spirit . . .

F.H.S.'s Spirit Shows Through . . .

During homecoming week our enthusiasm and excitement built as we dressed and took part in the week's activities. It all started on Monday, Oct. 1 being P.J. day and Nerd day. The next day we gave a final farewell to summer by celebrating fun in the sun day. Carrie Cook and Jerri Quinn both agreed by saying that "Wednesday was the high point of the week with Jr.'s and Sr.'s striving to be number one." Those who were not a part of the powder-puff activities showed off by dressing backwards and inside out. We gave a salute to the crowning of the Queen and her court by dressing in our finest attire. We went out with a bang of Friday, Oct. 5, everyone dressed in our school colors and cheered at the pep assembly to end our school week.

On October 3, 1984 Freeland had its traditional powder puff game. The Juniors wore yellow jerseys and were the visitors. Seniors wore the green jerseys and were the home team. The setting of the action was the Freeland Middle School football field. The game ended in a tie that night. Junior Kriss Carl commented, "I feel that the Juniors could have done better." Senior Penny Hock said "I really enjoyed it for my last year."

Teacher Mr. Hennink commented "We have had a powder puff game for 21 years. It adds a lot of spirit to homecoming week and it gives the girls a chance to see how hard the guys really work."

On Thursday, October 4, 1984 Jenni Wheeker was announced Homecoming Queen at the Queen's Assembly. This was the second year that the Queen was announced at the assembly and it looks like it may be a new tradition of Homecoming Week. Penny Hock sang "Hard Habit to Break", Cheryl Field sang "I Honestly Love You", and Amy Miller sang "Against All Odds". The Jazz Band also performed a song called "All Night Long".

The 1984 Homecoming Parade was led by the Marching Falcons. In the parade were floats done by each class showing their spirit. The Junior class float came in first place with their theme "Burn Bulldogs". The Senior class float titled "Cheer 'em on to Victory" came in second place. The Sophomore class float came in third place with "Flatten 'em and Blast 'em". The Freshmen class float came in fourth place with their float titled "Cage the Bulldogs". All the floats were creative and full of spirit. The Homecoming Court rode on top of Corvettes. Also in the parade were the Pom Pon girls, Cheerleaders, Gymnasts, and other Freeland organizations and floats.

Moments never

The halftime activities of the 1984 Homecoming game, on October 5, began traditionally with the Marching Falcons performing a few songs, including "Rock-it" and "Almost Over You". While the band performed, the Homecoming Court rode on Corvettes across the field, and the Pom Pon girls did a routine with the band. Then starting with the Freshmen each girl walked down the field with their fathers. Queen Jenni Wheeker walked down last with her parents. Last year's queen, Bridget Kasper, crowned Jenni and Varsity Football captain, Ken Fischer, presented her with a football signed by the whole team.

October 6, 1984 balloon heaven! That was what the Homecoming Dance looked like. The dance floor was sectioned off from the rest of the cafeteria. In the four pillars of balloons reaching from the floor to the ceiling, radiating out from the multi-colored pillars, in ninty degree angles, was a line of balloons anchored to the floor by ribbons. The dance floor itself was covered with balloons. Above the dance floor tinsel and helium-filled balloons hung from the ceiling. R & R Productions provided the music. The theme song of the dance was "All Night Long," by Lionel Richie. The song was off the "Can't Slow Down" album. Mason Scherzer, Michelle Wyllie, Shelly Brogan, Suzanne Hendricks, Jill VanHaaren, Max Holman, Michelle Bauer, Krissy Whitosky, and John Martin's imagination and artistic ability in decorating the cafeteria was greatly appreciated.

Homecoming: A great succes

Falcons take the game: 27 to 9

The 1984 Homecoming game was a success for our mighty Falcons. They took the game with a score of 27-9 against the St. Charles Bulldogs. Junior Dave Roenicke added a lot to the win by scoring 3 touchdowns. After being behind 7-9 at halftime, Coach Hacker pulled his team together to end an exciting night successfully.

The senior class of 1985 was one to remember. Who could forget? We sailed through high school on a cloud . . . of smoke. The staff breathed as they got rid . . . er . . . graduated us. They were always busy playing hopscotch trying to keep one ahead of us. Good thing we tied their shoelaces together.

We were always the class that had smiles plastered on our faces. Then again we were always the class that was up to something. We certainly left our mark in the minds of the administration and also the walls of the restrooms.

Our minds always flew with motion. Fireworks, fingers, and food always seemed to flying too. Those flying minds also designed our great floats. We won once and were second twice.

Then there was the senior hall. Who could forget our hall? The memories, the good times, the good smells from the home ec. room, the bad from the biology room, who could forget them? In that hall we showed we could have spirit and unity too. We partied our way straight to the title of "The Class with the Most Spirit." Our lockers in that hall were probably the most maligned chunk of metal in the building, let's just say we left them "lived in."

We were unique. We weren't always stellar in our star quality, but we made it and for that we can be very proud.

Andrea Belbussi, our Southern (Hemisphere) Belle from Argentina. She fell in love . . . over and over and over again. What will she do without F.H.S.'s men? Answer: Come back to America to attend Delta!

Makoto Ishii, Freeland's representative from Japan definitely had one partying time. He is now a legend at quarter bounce. He was also in the cast of Grease. Go Makoto!

Foreign Exchange Students

Bernt Fischer, Switzerland's offering to the big F.H.S., wowed people with his intelligence. He certainly was active also participating in Cross Country, Skiing, Track, and Grease. He will be remembered as Freeland's own John Travolta.

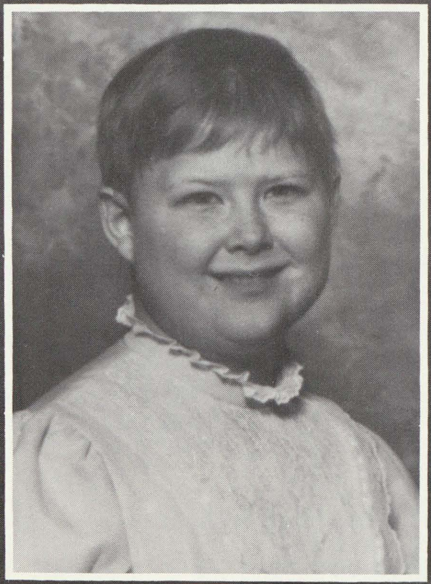

Thomas Lugiez, France's chance in Freeland, was a shy kinda guy. He didn't say much so we won't either. Smile Thomas & good luck!

Susan Marie Lazzaro

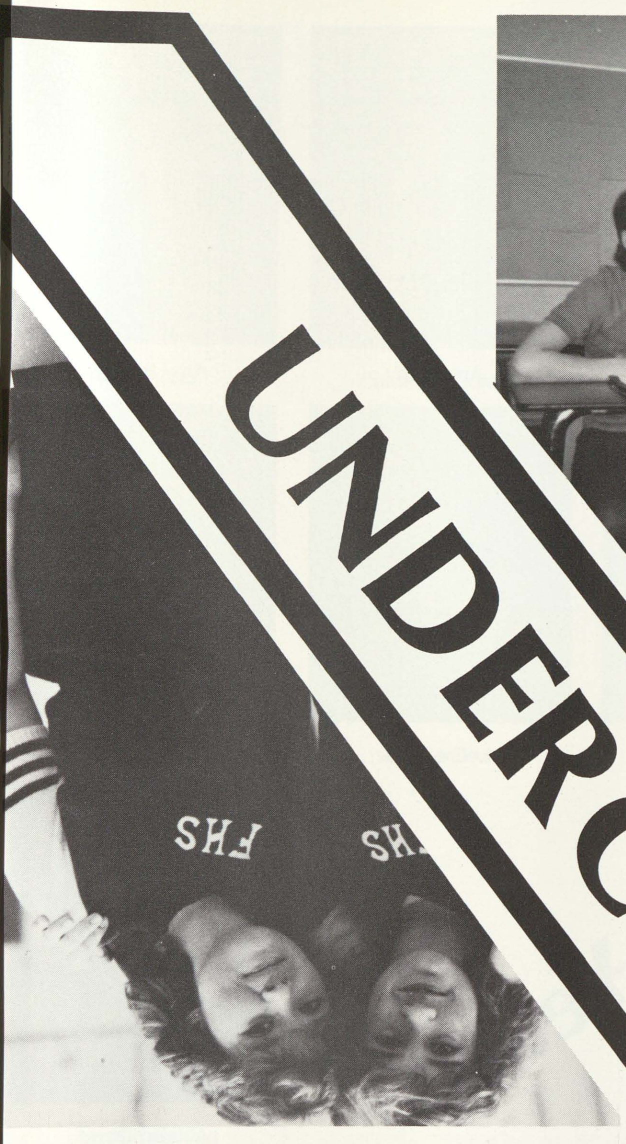

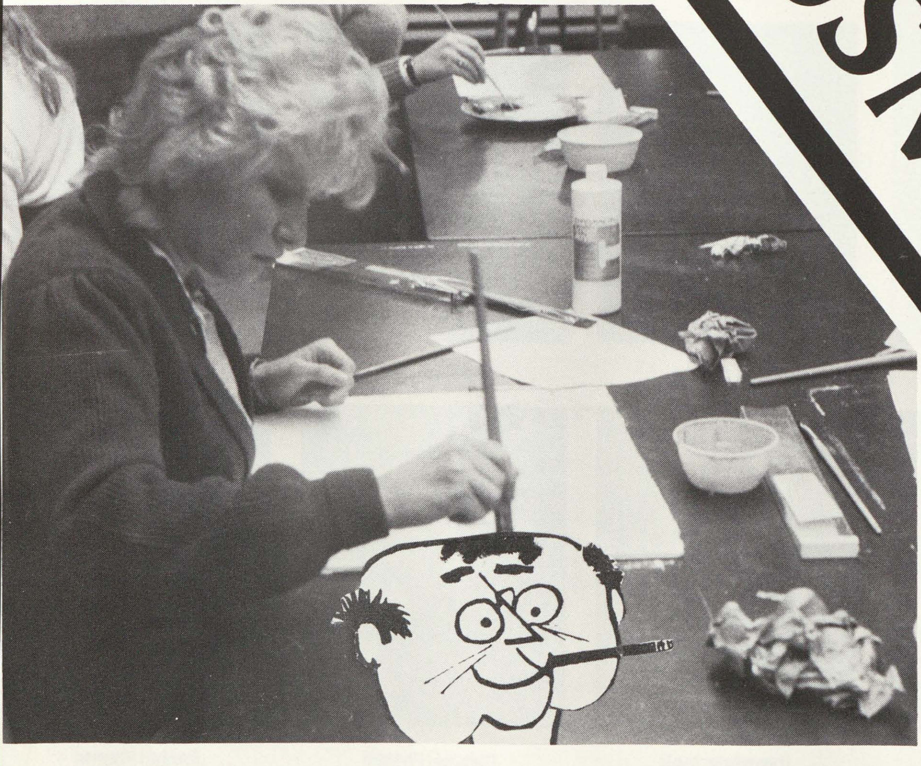

The editors and staff of the 1985 yearbook wish to dedicate this entire yearbook in loving memory of Sue Lazzaro. Sue attended Freeland school's through 6th grade and enjoyed school and people. She participated in Little League, the choir and her church youth group all the while showing high scholastic ability. Sue was blessed with the gift of music and that of the smile. She was diagnosed with leukemia in August, 1970 and was treated at Children's Hospital in Detroit. She died on May 27, 1979.

Freshmen Fly High In '85

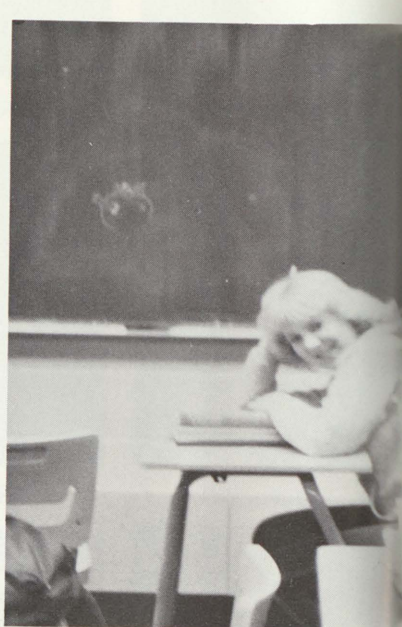

The entering of new freshmen to Freeland High School was both a new and exciting event. The freshmen float placed fourth among the four floats. The theme of the float was "Cage the Bulldogs". Representing the freshmen class on Queens' Court were Krissy Whitosky and Amy Reimold. The freshmen were active in their first year in high school. They helped to decorate the Homecoming Dance and were active in all sports. The freshmen were also involved in the theatre production of "Grease". James Dean played the role of Eugene. On March 1, the freshmen helped put on the Noblemen's Dance. Representatives for the freshmen class on Kings' Court were Mike Aide and Chris Swanson.

Varsity Football

This year's 1984 Varsity Falcons led by Coach Jim Hacker and assistant Coach Dave Oczepek, continued to build a winning reputation with a 5-4 record.

The Falcons beat their CML rival St. Charles and lost a heartbreak game to Michigan Lutheran Seminary in the closing minutes of the game. They had a 4-3 record in the CML one of the toughest conferences in the area.

The 1984-85 boys' Cross Country team finished their season with a record of 3 wins and 5 losses. They finished 5th in the C.M.L.

This was the first year for a girl Cross Country team. They finished the season with a record of 2 wins and 3 losses, and they also finished 5th in the C.M.L.

All the home meets were at Imerman Park and the races were about 3.1 miles. We had a very young group of athletes this year and half of the group was made up of Freshmen. Of the 15 runners who finished the season, 14 were underclassmen. The one upperclassman was Bernt Fisher.

"I had a very enjoyable time and found this group of athletes are of the best I've ever had the pleasure to work with," said coach Dan Craig.

Jim Foulds received the M.V.P. for the boys' team. He also got his third year award for being on the varsity.

Mike Hunter was top five in all the meets ran for Freeland.

Craig Blower, Sophomore, said, "I enjoyed the C.M.L. meet the best because I met new and interesting people."

Amy Rohn, Junior, said, "I enjoyed the C.M.L. meet also, because that is where Jill Van Haaren and I tied with a good time of 23:20."

Girls Basketball

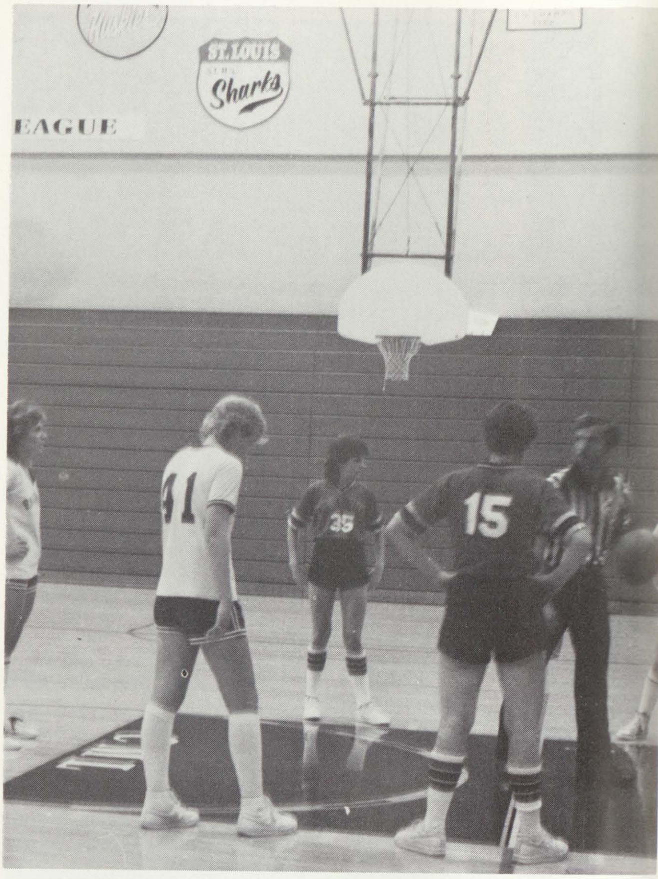

The Freeland High School Girls' Basketball teams had a great season, thanks to their hard work, dedication, and the leadership of Coach Andrew Krayscir. The previous win-loss record held by Mr. Thomas Hicksons team in 1979, was broken this year with a fabulous comeback, and a final two wins, six losses record. Senior Jennifer Shaver was voted MVP and Junior Sandy Kanouse received an honorable mention on the Saginaw News sponsored "Dream Team", Sandy was one away from being in the state's Top 30!

The Varsity team wasn't the only team that broke records this year. Freeland's Junior Varsity team had a final twelve wins, five losses record to end the season. One Freshmen, Amy Wazny, and two sophomores, Dorothy Blackwell and Lisa Bashans were brought up to varsity. The team had a lot of young talent which proved to be tough competition for its rivals.

Pom Pons And Much

Jeanna Thering posing for the start of a competition routine.

Pom Pons

Although the sun was not shining this winter the Freeland pom pon squad was. The girls displayed much excitement and talent through out the football and basketball season.

Their coach Suzanne Marciniak, "Sam", has been organizing and advising the squad for five years now. Sam does a very good job and enjoys what she does very much. Hope to see you in the years ahead Sam!!!!

This past summer the pom pon squad was invited to a competition in Chicago, to which they competed against girls from Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio. The pom pon squad would like to thank all their parents for helping them get to the windy city.

The basketball season of 1985 shot off to a good start. The pom pon squad expressed excitement for their team by performing to upbeat songs during J.V. and Varsity halftimes.

Cheerleading

J.V. Spirits Are Flying High!

The Junior Varsity Cheerleading squad spent lots of time cheering, rallying, and boosting the spirits of the fabulous J.V. football and basketball teams to make 84-85 a great year. It should also be noted that the squad spent lots of time preparing for pep assemblies with the Varsity squad.

The cheerleading season began with D.C.A. (dynamic cheerleading association) competitions where they received an award for most improved squad which includes: best cheering skills, and outstanding spirit. After that, the team was faced with a season of injuries and problems with coaches, but all in all they made it through the year alright!

Stand Proud Cheer Loud

Like the great pyramids of Egypt, the Freeland Cheerleaders are stacked!

Throughout the course of the 1984-85 school year the Varsity Cheerleaders kept the spirits high whether it be out on the field, the court, or at the pep assemblies. The Varsity Cheerleaders had a lot of fun with their goofy and sometimes outrageous skits performed at these pep assemblies. The Varsity Cheerleaders also journeyed to the Pontiac Silverdome.

Wrestling

Wrestlers Fine

This year the Falcon Wrestling Team posted a 5-8 dual meet record along with several respectable finishes in tournaments. Freeland's record would have been 7-6 if it weren't for forfeited weight classes, which gave their opponents 18 to 24 points per meet. The young team with new coaching is ahead of schedule in its drive to restore former glory from past years to Freeland's wrestling program.

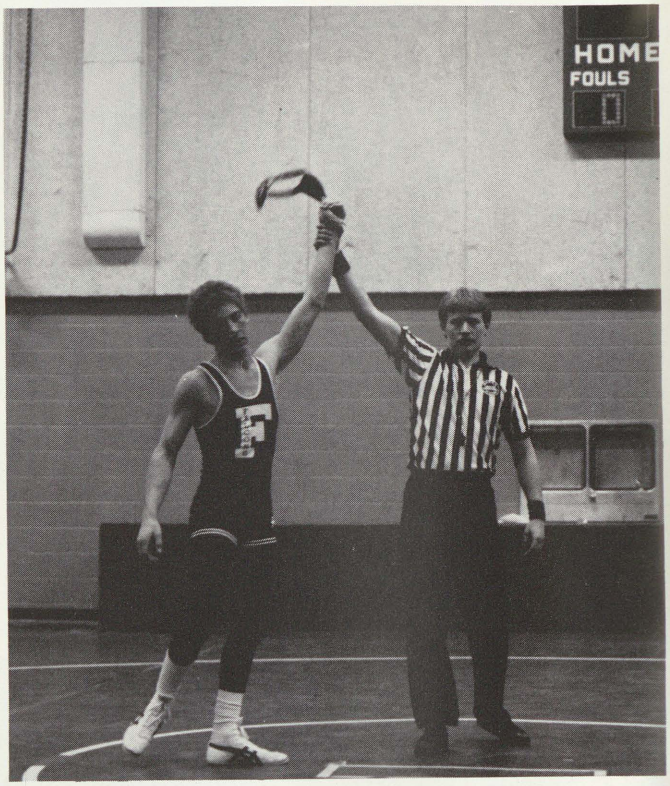

In dual meets, the Falcons had several outstanding grapplers. Seniors John Smilie and Tom Yeska led the team with most wins in this category. Strong performances by Mike McCollum and Jon Grasso often gave Freeland decisive advantages in their winning efforts.

John Smillie, who was team Captain, was the MVW and also racked up the most pins during the season. Tom Yeska was the most improved wrestler and Co-Captain Brian McKellar was the outstanding rookie for the season.

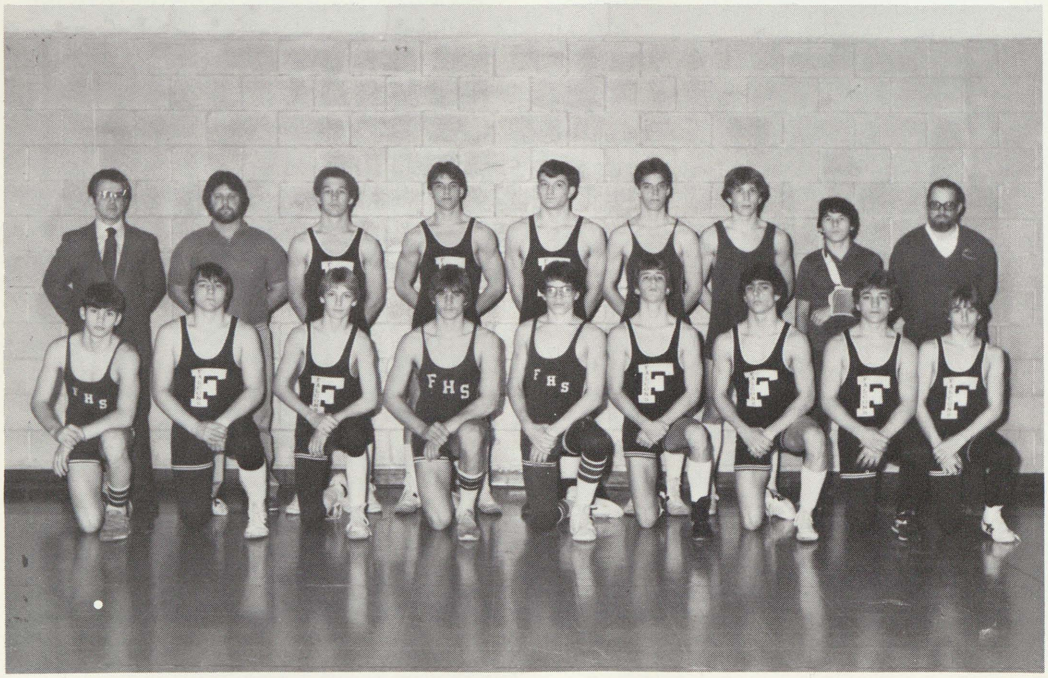

In tournaments, John Smillie, Paul Dennis, and Mike McCollum provided the scoring punch. This season; Smillie, Yeska, and McKellar qualified for Regionals. This is the most Freeland has sent in four years.

The J.V. squad; which posted a winning record with many shut-outs, featured Scott Wruck, Chris Vasold, Troy Leiner, Jim Leaman, and Chris Heinlein.

With all the returning underclassmen, Freeland should post a winning season and qualify several wrestlers for the state meet next year. Finally, Freeland also hopes to become a dominant C.M.L. power in two years.

BUMP, SET, SPIKE, WIN ...

The F.H.S. varsity volleyball team had a year to remember. The team was mostly made up of sophomore's with the exception of juniors Jerrilynn Quinn and Andrea Laske, seniors Amy Rutledge and Lisa Hudson.

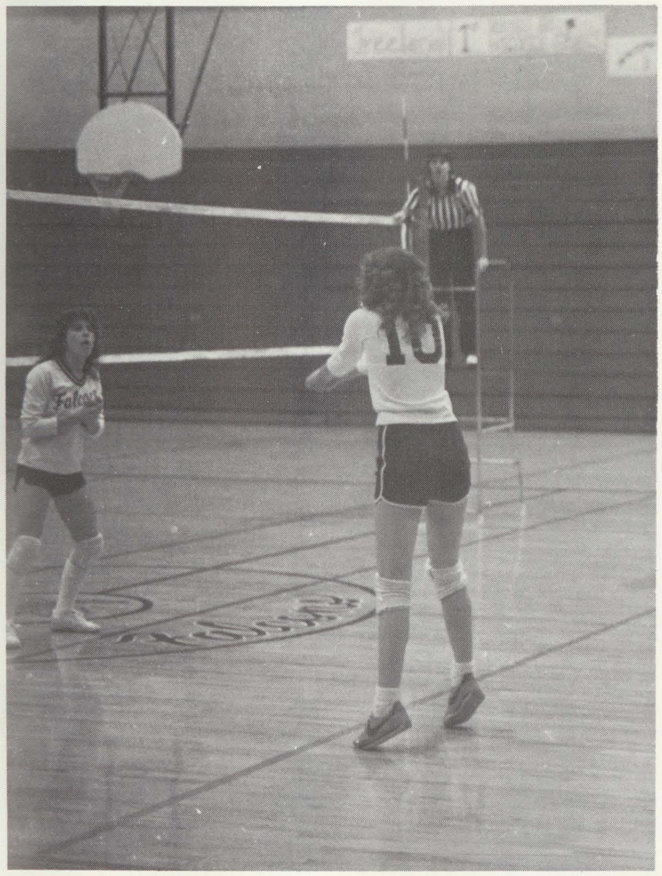

The volleyball team both J.V. and Varsity had their banquet together. The J.V. coach presented each J.V. member a volleyball survival kit which contained muscle cream, a bandana, a comb, and bandages. The Varsity team members were presented with their Varsity letters, pins, and a folder with the seasons statistics.

The J.V. team started out very inexperienced but with a good coach and lots of hard work they improved more and more as the season progressed. They ended their season with a goodbye to the seniors and a hello to next years team.

Baseball C.M.L.

At the beginning of the season, no one knew if the baseball team would even have a coach! Luckily, Mr. Dale Wissner spoke up and was handed the job. Now, at the end of the year, our championship team has on the C.M.L. title, with the help of Dave Dennis and Brian Wissner, both pitchers of this years team. The team had a final record of 10-9 and 9-5 in the C.M.L. Obviously, this team put forth a great effort and will probably do better in years to come!

MARCHING FALCONS

1984-85 Marching Falcons!

The Freeland High School marching band performed at Central Michigan University's Band Day this year, along with a guest performance at Northwood Institute. The marching Falcons were also invited to attend the Zillwaukee Summer Festival Parade. In addition to the above, the band also played at all the home football games, including the Homecoming game.

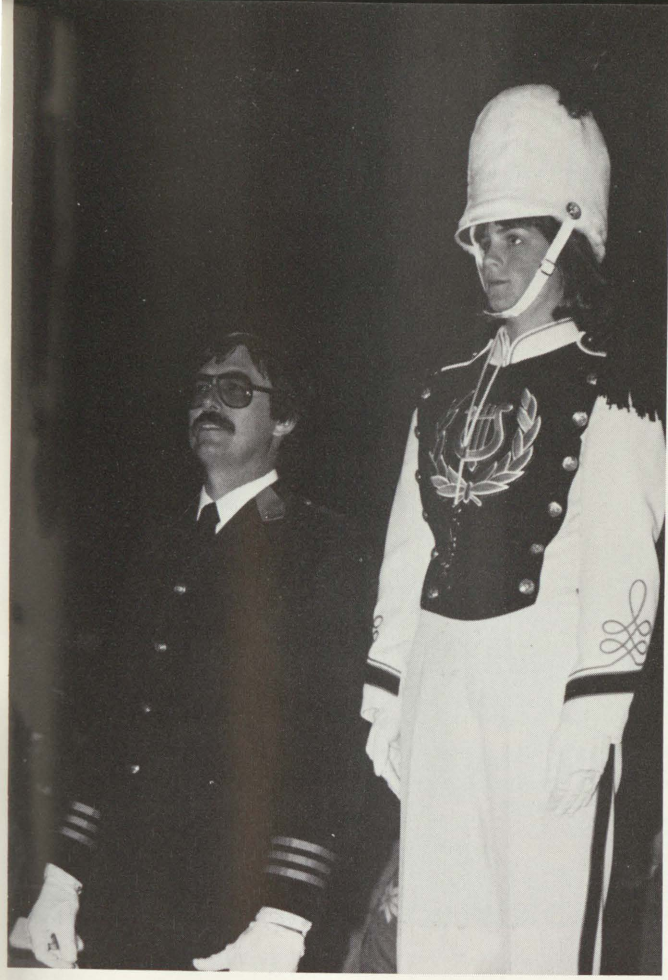

And The Band Marches On . . .

Pat Egan, Tina Dougherty, and Dennis Beson blow to the beat.

The Freeland High School Senior Band performed at Authur Hill High School on March 9th for a district festival in which they received a first division rating, straight 1's across the board. Then they qualified for state, held in Grand Rapids where only about 12 schools qualified to play! After being judged by three very difficult judges, they received a second division rating.

Band

Many members of this years Freshman and Senior band competed in the district and state Solo/Ensemble competition where all members, facing very tough judges, got a one, being the best, or a two, which is also very good. The Jazz Band performed at many local concerts, including the "Blast of Brass" concert at the Arthur Hill High School.

The Freshman concert band earned a first division rating at the district band festival and a second division rating at the state festival in front of 3 very difficult judges.

Yearbook 1984-85 was a class of turbulation. Stellar highs and cataclysmic lows marked most of the year. By the time this copy is read we will hopefully have paid the book off. If not well we'll all be in debtors prison. Such is life. We almost had seniors in color for the first time in recent years. Quite fitting since the seniors certainly were colorful. The staff pulled together to finish this book and that we are proud of. We worked hard in the face of adversity. We came, we saw, we kicked its . God Bless this mess.

Freshman elections were first followed by, spirit week, powder puff, homecoming parade, game . . . Got the picture! We did well though! We also had a busy year selling flowers for cancer, attending project outreach for leaders, and mailing an alcohol awareness packet to all the families from F.H.S. Through the year Mr. Jacobi was a rock and we are glad he was there to support us. THANK YOU!

Noblemen Reign Upon The Dance

Noblemans in an honor to the girls and guys of Freeland High. It is a chance for the classes to pick their favorite babe and acknowledge their unique qualities. The dance was held on March 1st of 1985. The music was played by Woody Whitosky (our faithful D.J.). The dance was a big success as John Dinsmoore (pictured below) took over the crown. Everyone had a great time and will remember it always.

Law Day Mock Trial

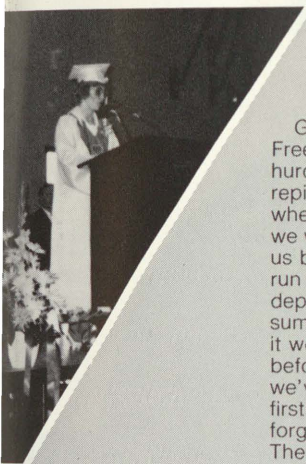

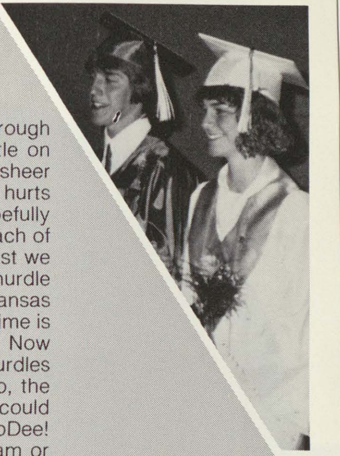

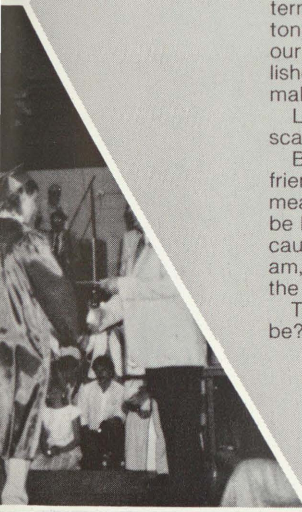

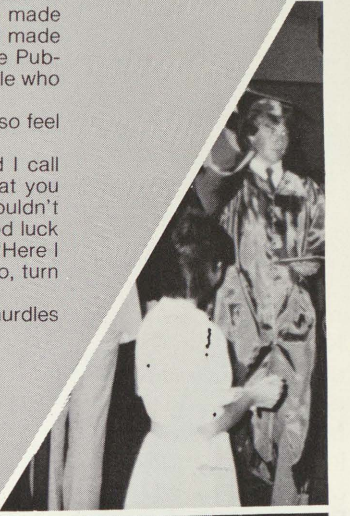

The long grueling hours finally paid off. After meeting many times a week, Mason Scherzer, Mary Beth Keenan, Dave Coy, Chris Karow, and Scott Holman along with their advisor Mrs. Miller prepared for the big case. Scott was charged with negligent homicide but Mason and Mary Beth did a professional job of defending him. Dave "the party goer" and Chris "Scott's girlfriend" had their testimonies down great. In the end Freeland's defense team won the decision over Carollton's prosecuting team. Scott walked out a free man (well almost a man)!

Another Hurdle

Goodevening, tonight brings to a close the class of 85's flamboyant 13 year romp through Freeland Schools. In a sense we have cleared a hurdle. As a Hurdler let me speak a little on hurdling. To most, the hurdles don't seem all the formidable. To those who hurdle, out of sheer repittion, they even seem less formitable. Really they are, but let's not forget how much it hurts when we miss. Just ask Scott Berghius. In spite of their seemingly disguised treachery, hopefully we won't run out of hurdles. What kind of life would it be without something to strive for? Each of us being an individual will run in our own hurdle race, running after different things. How fast we run depends upon the motivation that lies somewhere within us. Whether we clear the hurdle depends upon how badly we want to and how well we play the game. This passage from Kansas sums it up: "Play, Play the game tonight, can you tell me if it's wrong or right is it worth the time is it worth the price. Can you see yourself in the white spotlight, and play the game tonight." Now before somebody gets a shovel out because it's so deep let me remind you of some of the hurdles we've cleared. The graduates won't remember these but our parents should. The first step, the first word, the first whole day using the toilette trainer. This being the last day of school, who could forget the first. Who would like too? Then of course, the first girlfriend, and the first kiss. JoDee! The drivers Liscense!!! Explaining the first accident. Our first real live all nighter on an exam or term paper. Speaking of all nighters, what an apapropriate time to thank all of those who made tonight possible. This message taken from a greeting card. I'd like to thank all those who made our graduation possible. Your parents, McDonald's restaurants, the Nodoz Company, The Publishers of Clasic Comics, The Japanese for all those stereo's, radio's and mopeds, the people who make backpacks, Adidas, and The Levi Strauss Company.

Looking back through the years at all the hurdles we've cleared we shouldn't, but if we so feel scared, we won't stop and falter, 'cause things can only get better.

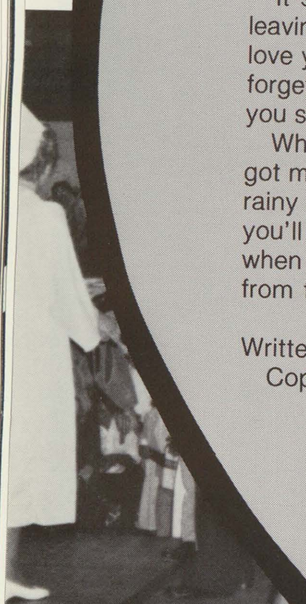

Before I'm through here tonight let me express my gratitude to those, young and old I call friends. From the heights to the depths, through laughs and tears I hope you realize what you mean to me. Without your strength, smiles, and the little goose to help over the hurdle, I wouldn't be here tonight. To my family who will be there when I fall, time after time, I wish you good luck cause you don't get rid of me after tonight. Finally let me once again quote from a song. "Here I am, on the road again, here I am up on the stage. Here I do, playing the star again here I go, turn the page.

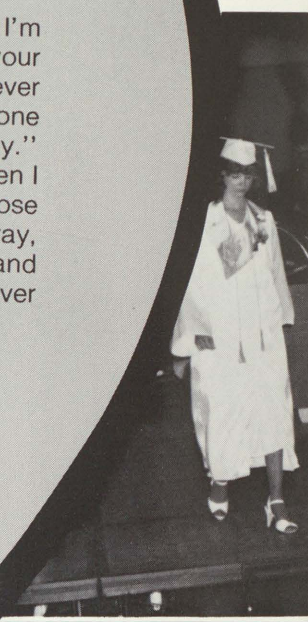

Tonight we are stars, tomorrow the page is turned. In the following pages what will our hurdles be?

"I'll Miss You Forever From Today"

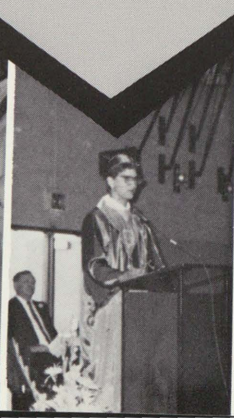

It started many years ago when we became the best of friends. And now I'm leaving, I must go. I hope our friendships never ends with all your care and all your love you help me through my trying times. And even when I'm up above, I'll never forget your smiling eyes. You are my very best friend you see, and when I'm gone you still will be. I hope you will listen when I say, 'I'll miss you forever from today."

When looking back in years from now, the things we used to say and do. When I got mad not knowing how, you got right up and showed me to. And even on those rainy days, you cheered me up when I was blue. I hope that when I'm far away, you'll cheer me up just like you used to do. You are my very best friend you see and when I'm gone you still will be. I hope you listen when I say, "I'll miss you forever from today." I'LL MISS YOU!!!
